

Zoence Weekend Retreat

Faithful and True

5-6 October 2019

led by Peter & Sarah Dawkins

Jupiter Artland, Bonnington House, Wilkieston, Edinburgh, Scotland

Who is faithful and true? Or Faithful and True?

This weekend retreat will explore this question, including how it relates both to ourselves and to the “Rider on the white horse” of St John’s Revelation. Such a question is particularly relevant in these “end times”, which are also “new beginnings”.

The weekend retreat will take place at Jupiter Artland, the award-winning sculpture park created by Robert and Nicola Wilson within the landscaped grounds of their home, Bonnington House, and will include meditations, insights, discussions, revelations, good food, quiet time, relaxation and exploring Jupiter Artland.
